- i. "Promoter Group" shall have the meaning assigned to it under the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2018 or any modification thereof.
- j. "Securities" shall have the meaning assigned to it under the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956 (42 of 1956) or any modification thereof except units of a mutual fund.
- k. "Trading" means and includes subscribing, buying, selling, dealing, or agreeing to subscribe, buy, sell, deal in any securities, and "trade" shall be construed accordingly and also to include pledging.
- l. "Trading Day" means a day on which the recognized stock exchanges are open for trading;
- m. "Trading Window" means the period during which Trading in Company's Securities can be carried out;

- n. “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information” (UPSI) means any information, relating to a company or its securities, directly or indirectly, that is not generally available which upon becoming generally available, is likely to materially affect the price of the securities and shall, ordinarily including but not restricted to, information relating to the following:
- (i) financial results;
 - (ii) dividends;
 - (iii) change in capital structure;
 - (iv) mergers, de-mergers, acquisitions, delisting, disposals and expansion of business and such other transactions; and
 - (v) changes in key managerial personnel;

Note: Any information relating to a company or securities, that is not generally available would be unpublished price sensitive information if it is likely to materially affect the price upon coming into the public domain. The types of matters that would ordinarily give rise to unpublished price sensitive information have been listed above to give illustrative guidance of unpublished price sensitive information.

Other terms not specifically defined here shall have the same meaning as assigned under the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015.

Applicability

This code is applicable to the Designated Persons and their immediate relatives.

Reporting

The Compliance Officer shall report to the Board of Directors of the Company and shall provide report to the Board on a quarterly basis in respect of Trading in excess of threshold limits in the Securities of the Company by the Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives, the trading plans and pre-clearance applications approved and rejected by the Compliance Officer.

The Compliance Officer shall also provide report to the Audit Committee/ Chairperson of Audit Committee of the Company and to the Board once in a year about the compliance with the provisions of this code and regulations.

Preservation of UPSI and Responsibilities of Designated Persons

All Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives shall maintain strict confidentiality with respect to all Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. To this end, no Designated Person shall:

- i. pass on Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to any person; or
- ii. disclose Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to their Immediate Relatives and any other person; or

- iii. discuss Unpublished Price Sensitive Information in public places where others might overhear; or
- iv. disclose Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to any other Designated Person or any other person who does not need to know the information to do his or her job; or
- v. give others the perception that he/she is trading on the basis of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.
- vi. The Designated Persons shall be responsible for keeping their immediate relatives updated about their responsibilities under the Code.

Information on a need to know basis & Chinese Wall procedures

All information shall be handled within the organisation on a need-to-know basis and no UPSI shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations. It is clarified that the term 'legitimate purpose', shall have the same meaning as provided under the Company's policy on 'Code of Fair Practices & Disclosure'. The UPSI must be kept confidential at all times. While communicating or allowing access to the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, the Designated Person(s) is required to give due notice to such person(s) with whom the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is shared, to maintain confidentiality of such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information in compliance with the Regulations and the Code.

No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of UPSI, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations. Legitimate purposes are defined in the Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosure of UPSI.

No designated person or his/her immediate relatives shall trade or deal in equity shares of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information unless made in accordance with the Trading Plan.

The Designated Persons shall not advise any person to Trade in the Securities while being in possession, control or knowledge of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. For avoidance of any doubt it is clarified that "advice" shall mean to include recommendations, communications or counseling.

Norms for appropriate Chinese Walls procedures & processes will be as under:

- i. To prevent the misuse of UPSI, the Company shall separate those areas of the Company which routinely have access to confidential information, considered "inside areas" from those areas which deal with sale/ marketing or other departments providing support services, considered "public areas".
- ii. The employees in the inside area shall not communicate any UPSI to any one in public area.

- iii. The employees in inside area may be physically segregated from employees in public area.
- iv. Demarcation of the various departments as inside area may be implemented by the Company.
- v. In exceptional circumstances employees from the public areas may be brought "over the wall" and given confidential information on the basis of "need to know" criteria, under intimation to the Compliance Officer.
- vi. Files containing UPSI shall be kept secured with restricted access and computer files containing UPSI should be protected with the help of login, passwords, etc.

Designated Persons

The Board of Directors of the Company / Chairman of the Company /Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the Company shall in consultation with the compliance officer specify the "designated persons" to be covered by the code of conduct on the basis of their role and function in the organization and the access that such role and function would provide to UPSI in addition to seniority and professional designation and shall include: -

- i. Employees of the Company designated on the basis of their functional role or access to UPSI in the organization;
- ii. Employees of material subsidiaries of the Company designated on the basis of their functional role or access to UPSI in the organization;
- iii. All promoters of the Company;
- iv. Directors & Key Managerial Personnel of the Company;
- v. Chief Executive Officer and employees upto two levels below Chief Executive Officer of such the Company and its material subsidiaries irrespective of their functional role in the Company or ability to have access to UPSI; and
- vi. Any support staff of the Company such as IT staff or secretarial staff who have access to UPSI.

Trading window

Designated persons and their immediate relatives may execute trades subject to compliance with the Code and Regulations. Towards this end, a notional trading window shall be used as an instrument for monitoring trading by the designated persons. The trading window /period is a period which will be specified for trading in the securities of the Company. The trading window shall be closed when the Compliance Officer determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of UPSI. Designated persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in securities when the trading window is closed.

Trading window shall remain mandatorily closed from the end of every quarter i.e. 1st April, 1st July, 1st October, 1st January every year till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results for the respective quarter/year.

The gap between clearance of accounts by Audit Committee and Board Meeting should be as narrow as possible and preferably on the same day to avoid leakage of material information.

The timing for re-opening of the trading window shall be determined by the Compliance Officer taking into account various factors including the UPSI in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty- eight hours after the information becomes generally available.

Pre-clearance & trades

When the trading window is open, trading by designated persons and their immediate relatives shall be subject to pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer, if the value of the proposed trade(s) is above minimum threshold limit of Rs. 10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten Lakh) in any calendar quarter. The Designated persons shall be required to submit application for pre-clearance along with Undertaking in the format specified in Annexure I.

While calculating the Threshold Limit, the cumulative value of the Securities of the Company Traded, whether in one transaction or series of transactions, during a calendar quarter by the Designated Person and his /her Immediate Relatives shall be taken into account.

All Designated Persons including their Immediate Relatives intending to Trade in the Securities of the Company up to the Threshold Limit fixed as aforesaid may do so without any clearance from the Compliance Officer.

Prior to approving any trades, the Compliance Officer shall be entitled to seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information. He shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.

The Compliance Officer shall within two working days of receipt of the aforesaid application, shall either approve or reject pre-clearance in the format specified in Annexure I. Order in respect of securities shall be executed within seven (7) trading days after approval is granted by the Compliance Officer, failing which fresh pre-clearance would be needed for the trades to be executed. Further, any transaction done on the basis of pre-clearance shall be reported to the Compliance officer within 2 working days in the format specified in Annexure I.

Such pre-clearance shall not in any way be deemed to be confirmation of compliance with the Takeover Code, if applicable. The person seeking pre-clearance shall be solely responsible for compliance with the provisions of the Takeover Code, if applicable.

Contra Trade

Designated person and their immediate relatives who are permitted to trade shall not execute a contra trade within a period of six (6) months following the prior transaction. Relaxation may be given from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate these Regulations. In the event, any such contra trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act. The Designated persons shall be required to submit application for waiver of minimum period of contra trade in the format specified in Annexure II.

The Compliance Officer shall within two working days of receipt of the aforesaid application, shall either approve or reject the aforesaid application in the format specified in Annexure II.

Provided that contra trade restrictions shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options or the trades carried out in accordance with a trading plan approved by the compliance Officer.

The Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives shall not take any positions in derivative transactions in the Securities of the Company at any time

TRADING PLANS

A Designated Person shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the compliance officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

Such trading plan shall:

- i. not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- ii. not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- iii. entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- iv. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- v. set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- vi. not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

The Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of the Code or the Regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor implementation of the trading plan. Upon approval of a trading plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the trading plan to the Stock Exchanges.

The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and shall be mandatorily implemented. Provided that the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any UPSI in possession of the Designated Person and/ or Immediate Relatives at the time of formulation of the plan has not become Generally Available Information at the time of commencement of implementation and in such event the Compliance Officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such UPSI becomes Generally Available Information, in compliance with the Regulations.

Disclosure Responsibilities & formats

The disclosures required to be made by a person under this provision/clause shall include details of Trades by such person's Immediate Relatives, wherever applicable

A. First Disclosures of holdings

Every promoter, member of the promoter group*, key managerial personnel and director of the Company shall disclose his holding of securities of the company in Form A as on the date of these regulations taking effect, to the company within thirty days of these regulations taking effect.

B. Initial Disclosures of holdings

Every person on appointment as a key managerial personnel or a director of the company or upon becoming a promoter or member of the promoter group* shall disclose his holding of securities of the company as on the date of appointment or becoming a promoter, to the company within seven days of such appointment or becoming a promoter in Form B.

* w.e.f. January 21, 2019

C. Continual Disclosures

Every Designated Person of the company shall disclose to the company the number of such securities acquired or disposed of within two trading days of such transaction if the value of the securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of Rs. 10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten Lakh Only) in Form C.

It is clarified for the avoidance of doubts that the disclosure of the incremental transactions after any disclosure under this sub-regulation, shall be made when the transactions effected after the prior disclosure cross the threshold specified above.

The Company shall within a period of two (2) trading days from the date of receipt of disclosure in Form C, or becoming aware of such information shall inform the Stock Exchanges particulars of such trading in Form D.

Every Designated Person shall disclose to the company any changes in details of Immediate Relatives and persons with whom Designated Person shares a Material Financial Relationship, within 15 days of any change in such information already submitted to the Company.

D. Other formats / disclosures, to monitor compliance with these Regulations would be as under:

- Reporting of holdings in securities by Designated Persons and their immediate relatives as on 31st March, on an annual basis by 21st April in Form E
- Designated persons shall be required to disclose in Form F, the names and Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law of themselves and of the following persons, to the Company on an annual basis within 10 days from the end of financial year and as and when the information changes:
 - a. immediate relatives;
 - b. persons with whom such designated person(s) shares a material financial relationship;
 - c. Phone, mobile and cell numbers which are used by them;

The term "material financial relationship" shall mean a relationship in which one person is a recipient of any kind of payment such as by way of a loan or gift from a designated person during the immediately preceding twelve months, equivalent to at least 25% of the annual income of such designated person but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm's length transactions.

- Designated persons, on a one time basis, within 10 days from becoming a Designated Person, shall be required to disclose in Form G, names of educational institutions from which designated persons have graduated and names of their past employers.

Protection against retaliation and victimization

An Employee willing to file any Voluntary Information Disclosure Form with the SEBI is not required to seek its prior permission of the employer or consent or guidance of any person engaged by the employer before or after such filing.

The Company shall not discharge, terminate, demote, suspend, threat, harass, directly or indirectly or discriminate against any employee of the Company who files a Voluntary Information Disclosure Form, irrespective of whether the information is considered or rejected by the SEBI or he or she is eligible for a Reward under these regulations, by reason of:

- (i) filing a Voluntary Information Disclosure Form under these regulations;

(ii) testifying in, participating in, or otherwise assisting or aiding the SEBI in any investigation, inquiry, audit, examination or proceeding instituted or about to be instituted for an alleged violation of insider trading laws or in any manner aiding the enforcement action taken by the Board; or

(iii) breaching any confidentiality agreement or provisions of any terms and conditions of employment or engagement solely to prevent any employee from cooperating with the SEBI in any manner.]

Awareness & Process

The Compliance Officer shall in consultation with Chairman of Board/ Executive Director shall have a process for how and when people are brought "inside" on sensitive transactions. The designated persons shall be made aware of the duties and responsibilities attached to the receipt of Inside Information, and the liability that attaches to misuse or unwarranted use of such information.

Penalty for contravention of Code of Conduct

Every Designated Person is individually responsible for complying with the applicable provisions of the Code (including to the extent the provisions hereof are applicable to the Immediate Relatives of the Designated Persons).

Without prejudice to the power of SEBI under the Act, any Designated Person contravening the Code shall be liable to be penalized and appropriate disciplinary action shall be taken by the Company including but not limited to warning letter, remuneration freeze, suspension, recovery, clawback, etc. after giving reasonable opportunity of being heard in the matter. The extent of disciplinary action will depend upon various circumstances like intention, nature of violation etc.

*Any amount collected from the disciplinary action shall be remitted to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by it under the Act. Further, in case of any violation of the Code or regulations, the Company shall inform to the stock exchange in Form H.

* Amended w.e.f. July 17, 2020.

Amendments

This Code is subject to review from time to time. The amendments in regulations shall be applicable to the designated persons and their immediate relatives once the amendments are effective irrespective of whether those changes are carried out in the code subsequently. The Audit Committee and Board shall have power to carry out major amendments in the Code. In case of any inconsistency between the provisions of the Code and the regulations, the regulations shall prevail.
